ADVANCES IN ZEOLITE
SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

An International Symposium
celebrating Carmine Colella's 70th birthday

Naples (Italy) 14-17 September 2011

Unina Project by Roberto Kyje 03

SECOND CIRCULAR

Invitation

The Italian Zeolite Association (AIZ), the University of Napoli Federico II and the Second University of Naples (SUN) extend to zeolite scientists a cordial invitation to attend the International Symposium on Advances in Zeolite Science and Technology, which will be held in Naples (Italy), 14-17 September 2011, in the occasion of the 10th Congress and the 20th Anniversary of Italian Zeolite Association.

The conference is intended as a celebration of Carmine Colella's 70th birthday.

Topics

The Conference Program will deal with natural and synthetic zeolites, as well as mesoporous, hybrid, layered and other porous materials, including the following topics:

- Synthesis and characterization
- Ion exchange, adsorption and diffusion
- Catalysis
- Structural and computational studies
- Applications

Publications

Interested persons are invited to submit 4-page extended abstracts, prepared in accordance with instructions available on the web site. Accepted contributions will be included in the Book of Abstracts.

Full version of the papers may be submitted, after the conference, to Microporous and Mesoporous Materials for a possible publication in a peer-reviewed special "cluster" of the journal.

Conference Venue

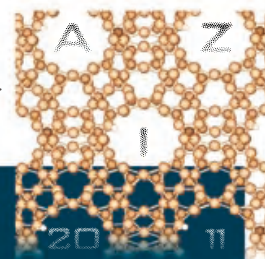

The meeting will be hosted in the Congress Centre of Federico II University, which is located in the panoramic waterfront area of Naples, at Via Partenope 36 (www.centrocongressi.unina.it).
